Recipe for class 70 Ginger Nut Biscuits

4oz (100g) butter, 1 teaspoon, bicarbonate of soda, 1 tablespoon golden syrup, 1 teaspoon ground ginger, 3oz (75 g) brown sugar, pinch of salt, 6oz (175g) self raising flour

Put the butter, syrup and sugar together in a pan and melt over a low heat.

Sift together the flour, bicarbonate of soda, ginger and salt, and add these to the melted ingredients in the pan stirring thoroughly.

Place the mixture in small heaps on a greased baking tray and flatten slightly. Bake for 10- 15 minutes at 375F/ 190C/ gas mark 5 until golden brown. Makes about 24.

Recipe for class 72 Victoria Jam Sandwich Cake

6oz (175g) self-raising flour

6oz (175g) butter or margarine

6oz (175g) caster sugar

3 tablespoons raspberry jam

3 large free-range eggs

Grease two 7inch (18cm) sandwich tins and line the base of each tin with grease proof paper.

Cream the fat and sugar until light and fluffy. Beat in the eggs, one at a time. Gently fold in the flour.

Place in the prepared tins and bake for 20-25 minutes at 180C/ 350F/ gas mark 4. When cool, turn out and spread jam on top of one half then place the other half on top.

Recipe for class 79 round fruit cake

4oz (100g) plain flour, 2oz(50g) candied peel, 4oz (100g) margarine, 4oz (100g) self-raising flour (white or whole meal), 2 eggs-beaten, 8fluid oz (227ml)water, 6oz (175g) light brown sugar, pinch of salt, 1 level tsp bicarbonate of soda, 1 heaped tsp mixed spice, 6oz (175g) each of currants and sultanas.

Put margarine, fruit sugar, peel, water, bicarbonate of soda and spice in a pan, bring to boil and simmer for 1 minute. Put in a large bowl to cool. When cool, add eggs, flour salt and mix well.

Mixture should be sloppy, and will make a moist cake. Put into lined, 8 inch (20mm) round tin. Bake in oven: 180C/ 350F/ gas mark 4.

SECTION 4 CLASS 84 SOCIETY TOP TRAY JUDGE KEN RIDEHALGH

- 1. The top tray class is for a collection of 3 types of vegetables taken from classes 1 to 26 in section 1. Quantity of each vegetable to be as shown in the class.
- 2. For the top tray class only, each type of vegetable will be judged to a total of 15 points maximum. The 15 points are divided as follows: 5 points for size, 5 points for condition, 5 points for uniformity. (Single item exhibits score 5 for uniformity). The overall mark will therefore be out of a total of 45.
- 3. A tray or board measuring 18 inches x 24 inches (45.72cm x 60.96 cm) is to be used to display the vegetables. All vegetables are to be displayed for effect. The vegetables must be displayed within the tray without bending any part of them. No part of any exhibit may exceed the size of the tray. Where a tray has a lip or edge, it is the internal measurements which must not exceed 18 inches x 24 inches (45.72cm x 60.96cm).
- 4. A black cloth is permitted in place of a tray, or the area may simply be marked on the staging. The tray may be painted. Parsley is allowed as garnishing, but no other garnish or accessories such as plates, sand, rings, etc are allowed. Onion tops may be tied or whipped using raffia or string.
- 5. Foliage of carrots, parsnips, beetroot to be trimmed to 3 inches (76mm).
- 6. Peas or beans to have some stalk attached (judges may open pods to check for quality).
- 7. Display tomatoes with calyxes attached.
- 8. Failure to abide by these rules could lead to disqualification.
- 9. Winner of top tray class will receive a certificate plus £12.00 prize. Runner up: £6.00. Third place £3.00. (Prizes may be cash or vouchers).
- 10. Judge may assess 'Top Tray' at his discretion, keeping in mind that entries may be from inexperienced exhibitors.
- 11. Judges to show breakdown of points on exhibitors cards.
- 12. Any other queries arising will be referred to, and decided upon, by the show officials.

JUDGES: Ken Ridehalgh and Stewart Clensy

1. This class is open to all garden and allotment clubs or societies. Entry to this class requires: 4 items from classes 1 to 26 (must be from 4 different classes). 2 items from classes 40 to 61 (must be from 2 different classes).
2. Same numbers and rules apply as per relevant classes.
3. Each entry will be allocated 36 inches x 36 inches (91.44cm X 91.44cm) of bench space. A tray and/or black cloth may be used. Also a backboard and garnish may be used, but the entry must not exceed it's allocated bench space.
4. This class will be judged by both vegetable and flower judges using a points system. The entry gaining the most points will win the trophy.
5. The entry fee is £3.00 and this class needs to be registered by 29 July 2023 with the society secretary. Eileen Longmore 01257 402097.
